

R2-D2's Galactic Recipe Collection

Recipes gathered across a galaxy far, far away

During his many decades of service to the Rebellion, the Republic and the Resistance, R2-D2 did not only carry secret plans and astromech navigational data. He carried something far more important: recipes. Across every planet he visited, every kitchen he passed through, every campfire he witnessed, R2-D2 stored the culinary knowledge of the galaxy. This collection represents twenty of those recipes — each one tied to a memory, a mission, or a moment that shaped the fate of the stars.

1. Bantha Milk Porridge

Planet of origin: Tatooine | Omnivore | Easy | 20 min | 2 servings | 280 kcal

During his years wandering the deserts of Tatooine, R2-D2 observed the Tusken Raiders preparing this thick porridge at dawn before long journeys across the Dune Sea. The warmth of the bantha milk combined with the rare desert grains kept them sustained through the scorching heat. R2-D2 stored the recipe after watching the same ritual for seven consecutive mornings.

Nutritional information per serving

Protein: 9g | Carbohydrates: 42g | Fat: 8g | Calories: 280 kcal

Ingredients

- 500 ml whole milk (or bantha milk substitute)
- 100 g rolled oats
- 2 tbsp honey
- 1 tsp cinnamon
- 50 g dried dates, chopped
- 30 g toasted almonds
- 1 pinch of salt

Method

1. Heat the milk in a saucepan over medium heat until warm but not boiling.
2. Add the oats and salt, stirring constantly for 5 minutes.
3. Reduce heat to low and cook for another 8 minutes until thick and creamy.
4. Stir in the honey and cinnamon.
5. Serve topped with dates and toasted almonds.

R2-D2's tip

For extra richness, add a spoonful of butter at the end just before serving.

2. Coruscant Skyline Noodles

Planet of origin: Coruscant | Vegan | Easy | 15 min | 2 servings | 320 kcal

Coruscant never sleeps, and neither do its street vendors. R2-D2 spent three nights in the lower levels of the city-planet tracking a Senate transmission when a small droid-friendly vendor prepared these noodles in under four minutes. The combination of soy, ginger and chilli became one of R2-D2's most requested recipes during the Clone Wars.

Nutritional information per serving

Protein: 11g | Carbohydrates: 55g | Fat: 7g | Calories: 320 kcal

Ingredients

- 200 g rice noodles
- 3 tbsp soy sauce
- 1 tbsp sesame oil
- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 tsp fresh ginger, grated
- 1 red chilli, sliced
- 2 spring onions, sliced
- 1 tbsp rice vinegar
- Sesame seeds to garnish

Method

1. Cook noodles according to package instructions, drain and set aside.
2. Heat sesame oil in a wok over high heat.
3. Add garlic, ginger and chilli, stir-fry for 1 minute.
4. Add noodles, soy sauce and rice vinegar, toss for 2 minutes.
5. Serve garnished with spring onions and sesame seeds.

R2-D2's tip

Add a soft-boiled egg on top for extra protein if you are not vegan.

3. Dagobah Swamp Stew

Planet of origin: Dagobah | Vegan | Medium | 45 min | 4 servings | 180 kcal

The swamps of Dagobah hide extraordinary ingredients beneath their murky surface. While Luke trained with Master Yoda, R2-D2 spent his time cataloguing the local flora. Master Yoda himself prepared this stew on the third evening, humming quietly as he added each ingredient.

R2-D2 recorded every detail, convinced this was the secret to Yoda's extraordinary longevity.

Nutritional information per serving

Protein: 7g | Carbohydrates: 28g | Fat: 5g | Calories: 180 kcal

Ingredients

- 300 g mixed mushrooms, roughly chopped
- 2 medium courgettes, diced
- 1 leek, sliced
- 3 cloves garlic
- 1 litre vegetable stock
- 200 g spinach
- 1 tbsp miso paste
- Fresh herbs (thyme, parsley)
- Salt and pepper

Method

1. Saute leek and garlic in olive oil until soft, about 5 minutes.
2. Add mushrooms and cook until they release their liquid, 8 minutes.
3. Add courgettes and stock, bring to a boil.
4. Reduce heat and simmer for 20 minutes.
5. Stir in miso paste and spinach, cook 2 more minutes.
6. Season with salt, pepper and fresh herbs.

R2-D2's tip

The miso paste adds depth and umami. Do not boil after adding it or you will destroy its beneficial properties.

4. Naboo Royal Risotto

Planet of origin: Naboo | Vegetarian | Medium | 40 min | 4 servings | 420 kcal

The royal kitchens of Theed Palace are legendary across the galaxy. During the Trade Federation blockade, R2-D2 accompanied Queen Amidala and witnessed the palace chef prepare this risotto for the Queen's last formal dinner before evacuating. The recipe was a closely guarded secret of the Naboo court, but R2-D2 has a very good memory.

Nutritional information per serving

Protein: 12g | Carbohydrates: 65g | Fat: 14g | Calories: 420 kcal

Ingredients

- 320 g arborio rice
- 1 litre warm vegetable stock
- 1 white onion, finely diced
- 2 cloves garlic
- 150 ml dry white wine
- 80 g parmesan, grated
- 40 g butter
- 2 tbsp olive oil
- Salt and white pepper
- Fresh parsley

Method

1. Heat olive oil in a wide pan, saute onion and garlic until translucent.
2. Add rice and toast for 2 minutes, stirring constantly.
3. Pour in wine and stir until absorbed.
4. Add stock one ladle at a time, stirring and waiting until each ladle is absorbed before adding the next.
5. After 18-20 minutes the rice should be al dente.
6. Remove from heat, stir in butter and parmesan.
7. Season and serve immediately garnished with parsley.

R2-D2's tip

Never stop stirring. Patience is the secret to a perfect risotto.

5. Hoth Ice Cave Soup

Planet of origin: Hoth | Omnivore | Easy | 30 min | 6 servings | 210 kcal

Surviving on Hoth requires creativity. After the Battle of Hoth, a small group of Rebel soldiers found themselves cut off from the main evacuation. R2-D2, unable to help with the fighting, improvised this warming soup using rations and local ingredients found in the ice caves. It kept six soldiers warm for two days until rescue arrived.

Nutritional information per serving

Protein: 18g | Carbohydrates: 22g | Fat: 6g | Calories: 210 kcal

Ingredients

- 400 g chicken or vegetable stock concentrate
- 1.5 litres water
- 200 g canned white beans

- 150 g smoked chicken, shredded
- 2 carrots, diced
- 2 celery stalks, sliced
- 1 tsp smoked paprika
- 1 tsp cumin
- Salt and pepper
- Crusty bread to serve

Method

1. Bring water and stock concentrate to a boil.
2. Add carrots and celery, simmer 10 minutes.
3. Add white beans, chicken, paprika and cumin.
4. Simmer 15 more minutes until vegetables are tender.
5. Season with salt and pepper.
6. Serve hot with crusty bread.

R2-D2's tip

On Hoth this was served in thermal flasks to keep warm. At home, pre-warm your bowls in the oven.

6. Bespin Cloud City Salad

Planet of origin: Bespin | Vegan | Easy | 15 min | 2 servings | 160 kcal

Cloud City floats above a gas giant, but its cuisine is surprisingly refined. Lando Calrissian prided himself on his table, and R2-D2 had a brief but memorable visit before everything went wrong with the Empire. The chef of the city's finest restaurant shared this recipe with R2-D2 in exchange for a hyperspace route calculation.

Nutritional information per serving

Protein: 5g | Carbohydrates: 18g | Fat: 9g | Calories: 160 kcal

Ingredients

- 150 g mixed salad leaves
- 1 ripe mango, diced
- 100 g cucumber, sliced
- 50 g toasted cashews
- 1 avocado, sliced
- 2 tbsp lime juice
- 1 tbsp olive oil

- 1 tsp agave syrup
- Fresh mint
- Salt and pepper

Method

1. Whisk together lime juice, olive oil, agave syrup, salt and pepper to make the dressing.
2. Arrange salad leaves on plates.
3. Top with mango, cucumber and avocado.
4. Drizzle dressing over everything.
5. Scatter cashews and fresh mint on top.

R2-D2's tip

The contrast between the creamy avocado and the sharp mango is what makes this salad special. Do not skip the mint.

7. Endor Forest Berry Cake

Planet of origin: Endor | Vegetarian | Medium | 60 min | 8 servings | 310 kcal

The Ewoks of Endor are extraordinary foragers. After the Battle of Endor, the celebration lasted three days. On the second day, the Ewok elder Logray prepared this berry cake as an offering to the spirit of the forest. R2-D2 watched the entire process with great interest, beeping encouragingly at each step. The Ewoks thought he was singing.

Nutritional information per serving

Protein: 5g | Carbohydrates: 48g | Fat: 12g | Calories: 310 kcal

Ingredients

- 200 g mixed berries (blueberries, raspberries, blackberries)
- 200 g plain flour
- 150 g sugar
- 100 g butter, softened
- 2 eggs
- 120 ml milk
- 1 tsp baking powder
- 1 tsp vanilla extract
- Pinch of salt
- Icing sugar to finish

Method

1. Preheat oven to 180 degrees. Grease a 22cm cake tin.
2. Beat butter and sugar until pale and fluffy.
3. Add eggs one at a time, beating well after each.
4. Mix in vanilla extract.
5. Fold in flour, baking powder and salt alternately with milk.
6. Gently fold in half the berries.
7. Pour into tin, top with remaining berries.
8. Bake 40-45 minutes until a skewer comes out clean.
9. Cool completely before dusting with icing sugar.

R2-D2's tip

Toss the berries in a little flour before folding in. This stops them sinking to the bottom.

8. Jakku Scavenger Flatbread

Planet of origin: Jakku | Vegan | Easy | 20 min | 4 servings | 190 kcal

Rey survived on Jakku by trading salvage for portions of food. R2-D2, briefly active again after years in low-power mode, observed her preparing these flatbreads from reconstituted ration portions. The simplicity of the recipe moved something in R2-D2's memory banks. Sometimes the most honest food is made with the least.

Nutritional information per serving

Protein: 6g | Carbohydrates: 38g | Fat: 2g | Calories: 190 kcal

Ingredients

- 250 g plain flour
- 150 ml warm water
- 1 tsp salt
- 1 tsp olive oil
- 1 tsp dried herbs (thyme, rosemary)
- Optional: garlic powder

Method

1. Mix flour, salt and herbs in a bowl.
2. Add water and oil, mix until a rough dough forms.
3. Knead for 5 minutes until smooth.
4. Divide into 4 balls and roll each very thin.
5. Cook in a dry hot pan for 2 minutes each side until charred spots appear.

6. Serve immediately.

R2-D2's tip

These are best eaten fresh off the pan. Wrap in a clean cloth to keep them soft while you cook the others.

9. Alderaan Herb Roasted Chicken

Planet of origin: Alderaan | Omnivore | Medium | 90 min | 4 servings | 520 kcal

Before its destruction, Alderaan was known as the most civilised planet in the galaxy. Its cuisine reflected this: refined, flavourful and rooted in tradition. R2-D2 carries this recipe as a small memorial to a world that no longer exists. Princess Leia once mentioned that this was her favourite meal from the royal table.

Nutritional information per serving

Protein: 48g | Carbohydrates: 8g | Fat: 32g | Calories: 520 kcal

Ingredients

- 1 whole chicken, about 1.5 kg
- 4 cloves garlic
- 2 lemons
- Fresh rosemary and thyme
- 4 tbsp olive oil
- Salt and black pepper
- 200 ml white wine
- 2 medium onions, quartered

Method

1. Preheat oven to 200 degrees.
2. Mix olive oil, crushed garlic, zest of 1 lemon, chopped herbs, salt and pepper.
3. Rub this mixture all over the chicken, including under the skin.
4. Stuff the cavity with the other lemon (halved) and herb sprigs.
5. Place onions in the roasting tin, put chicken on top.
6. Pour wine into the tin.
7. Roast for 1 hour 20 minutes, basting every 30 minutes.
8. Rest for 15 minutes before carving.

R2-D2's tip

The resting time is not optional. It allows the juices to redistribute through the meat.

10. Mandalore Warrior Steak

Planet of origin: Mandalore | Omnivore | Hard | 30 min | 2 servings | 580 kcal

The Mandalorians are warriors first, but they understand that a warrior who does not eat well cannot fight well. The Armorer prepared this steak for Din Djarin the night before a particularly dangerous mission. R2-D2 was not present, but BB-8 transmitted the details. R2-D2 considers this culinary intelligence of the highest importance.

Nutritional information per serving

Protein: 52g | Carbohydrates: 4g | Fat: 38g | Calories: 580 kcal

Ingredients

- 2 ribeye steaks, about 250 g each
- 4 cloves garlic, crushed
- 3 sprigs fresh rosemary
- 3 sprigs fresh thyme
- 60 g butter
- 2 tbsp olive oil
- Coarse sea salt
- Cracked black pepper

Method

1. Remove steaks from fridge 30 minutes before cooking.
2. Season generously with salt and pepper on both sides.
3. Heat olive oil in a cast iron pan until smoking hot.
4. Sear steaks 3 minutes each side without moving them.
5. Reduce heat to medium. Add butter, garlic and herbs.
6. Tilt the pan and baste the steaks with the foaming butter continuously for 2 minutes.
7. Rest the steaks on a warm plate for 5 minutes before serving.

R2-D2's tip

The quality of the steak matters more than anything else here. Do not buy cheap meat for this recipe.

11. Corellia Spiced Lentils

Planet of origin: Corellia | Vegan | Easy | 35 min | 4 servings | 260 kcal

Han Solo grew up on the streets of Coronet City on Corellia, and this was the dish the street vendors sold for the price of a few credits. He never admitted to liking it, but R2-D2 once caught him ordering it three times in one week at a Corellia-themed cantina on Nar Shaddaa. Old habits from childhood are hard to break, even for a smuggler.

Nutritional information per serving

Protein: 16g | Carbohydrates: 40g | Fat: 5g | Calories: 260 kcal

Ingredients

- 300 g red lentils
- 1 large onion, diced
- 3 cloves garlic
- 1 can chopped tomatoes
- 1 tsp turmeric
- 1 tsp cumin
- 1 tsp coriander
- Half tsp chilli powder
- 800 ml vegetable stock
- 2 tbsp olive oil
- Fresh coriander to serve

Method

1. Fry onion in olive oil until golden, about 8 minutes.
2. Add garlic and all spices, fry for 1 minute until fragrant.
3. Add lentils, tomatoes and stock.
4. Bring to boil then simmer 25 minutes, stirring occasionally.
5. The lentils should be completely soft and the mixture thick.
6. Season and serve with fresh coriander.

R2-D2's tip

This tastes even better the next day. Make a big batch and refrigerate.

12. Mustafar Volcano Chilli

Planet of origin: Mustafar | Omnivore | Medium | 50 min | 6 servings | 380 kcal

Mustafar is a planet of fire and tragedy. R2-D2 was there on the worst day in galactic history. He does not speak of what he witnessed. But years later, at a Rebel Alliance cookout, he prepared this fiery chilli in memory of a world that burns eternally. Some food carries the weight of history in every bite.

Nutritional information per serving

Protein: 28g | Carbohydrates: 35g | Fat: 14g | Calories: 380 kcal

Ingredients

- 500 g minced beef
- 2 cans kidney beans
- 1 can chopped tomatoes
- 1 large onion, diced
- 3 cloves garlic
- 2 red chillies, diced
- 1 tbsp smoked paprika
- 2 tsp cumin
- 1 tsp cayenne pepper
- 300 ml beef stock
- 2 tbsp tomato paste
- Salt and pepper

Method

1. Brown the mince in a large pot over high heat, breaking it up as it cooks.
2. Remove meat and fry onion and garlic in the same pot until soft.
3. Add fresh chilli, paprika, cumin and cayenne, fry 1 minute.
4. Return the meat. Add tomatoes, tomato paste and stock.
5. Simmer 25 minutes, then add kidney beans.
6. Cook another 10 minutes until thick.
7. Season and serve with rice or bread.

R2-D2's tip

This chilli should be spicy enough to remind you that some decisions have permanent consequences.

13. Kashyyyk Wookiee Bark Bread

Planet of origin: Kashyyyk | Vegan | Hard | 120 min | 8 servings | 230 kcal

The Wookiees of Kashyyyk live in the high canopy of the wroshyr trees. R2-D2 visited during the Clone Wars alongside Yoda and discovered that Wookiee baking is a serious business. This dark, nutty bread is baked in the hollow of old bark and eaten at the great communal meals that happen every full moon. Chewbacca later confirmed the recipe was correct.

Nutritional information per serving

Protein: 7g | Carbohydrates: 38g | Fat: 7g | Calories: 230 kcal

Ingredients

- 400 g wholemeal flour
- 100 g rye flour
- 7 g dried yeast
- 300 ml warm water
- 2 tbsp molasses
- 1 tsp salt
- 50 g mixed seeds (pumpkin, sunflower, sesame)
- 2 tbsp olive oil

Method

1. Dissolve yeast and molasses in warm water. Leave 5 minutes until frothy.
2. Mix flours and salt in a large bowl.
3. Add yeast mixture and oil, mix to a sticky dough.
4. Knead 10 minutes until smooth and elastic.
5. Cover and leave to rise 1 hour until doubled.
6. Shape into a loaf, place in a greased tin, top with seeds.
7. Leave to rise another 30 minutes.
8. Bake at 200 degrees for 35-40 minutes until it sounds hollow when tapped underneath.

R2-D2's tip

Wookiees bake this low and slow. Do not rush the rising time or you will lose the complex flavour.

14. Tatooine Dewback Kebab

Planet of origin: Tatooine | Omnivore | Easy | 25 min | 4 servings | 340 kcal

The moisture farmers of Tatooine have few luxuries, but they are masters at coaxing flavour from sparse ingredients. Owen Lars prepared these kebabs every harvest festival. R2-D2 attended one such festival with Luke, though at the time neither knew how the evening would change the galaxy forever. The kebabs were excellent.

Nutritional information per serving

Protein: 32g | Carbohydrates: 8g | Fat: 20g | Calories: 340 kcal

Ingredients

- 600 g lamb mince
- 1 onion, grated
- 3 cloves garlic, crushed
- 1 tsp cumin

- 1 tsp coriander
- Half tsp cinnamon
- Half tsp chilli
- Salt and pepper
- Fresh parsley
- Flatbread and yoghurt to serve

Method

1. Mix all ingredients together thoroughly with your hands.
2. Divide into 8 portions and shape around metal skewers.
3. Refrigerate for 15 minutes to firm up.
4. Grill or barbecue over high heat for 10-12 minutes, turning occasionally.
5. Serve with flatbread, yoghurt and fresh parsley.

R2-D2's tip

Grating the onion rather than chopping it keeps the kebabs moist. Squeeze out excess liquid before adding.

15. Mon Cala Ocean Poke Bowl

Planet of origin: Mon Cala | Omnivore | Easy | 20 min | 2 servings | 420 kcal

The Mon Calamari are an aquatic species and their relationship with seafood is deeply cultural. Admiral Ackbar once invited R2-D2 to a diplomatic lunch on Mon Cala, where this poke bowl was served as a first course. It was a trap. A delicious trap. R2-D2 recorded everything.

Nutritional information per serving

Protein: 28g | Carbohydrates: 48g | Fat: 12g | Calories: 420 kcal

Ingredients

- 200 g fresh salmon or tuna, diced
- 200 g cooked sushi rice
- 1 avocado, sliced
- 100 g cucumber, diced
- 50 g edamame beans
- 3 tbsp soy sauce
- 1 tbsp sesame oil
- 1 tsp rice vinegar
- 1 tsp sriracha

- Sesame seeds and spring onion to garnish

Method

1. Mix soy sauce, sesame oil, rice vinegar and sriracha for the marinade.
2. Toss diced fish in the marinade and leave 10 minutes.
3. Divide rice between two bowls.
4. Arrange fish, avocado, cucumber and edamame on top.
5. Drizzle remaining marinade over everything.
6. Garnish with sesame seeds and spring onion.

R2-D2's tip

Only use sushi-grade fish for this recipe. Freshness is everything.

16. Ahch-To Temple Porridge

Planet of origin: Ahch-To | Vegan | Easy | 15 min | 1 servings | 240 kcal

Luke Skywalker spent years in self-imposed exile on the island planet of Ahch-To. R2-D2 followed him there, refusing to be left behind. During the long grey mornings on the island, Luke prepared this simple porridge while the Porgs watched with great curiosity. It was on one such morning that R2-D2 played Leia's old message and changed everything.

Nutritional information per serving

Protein: 8g | Carbohydrates: 44g | Fat: 5g | Calories: 240 kcal

Ingredients

- 80 g oats
- 250 ml plant milk
- 1 tbsp chia seeds
- 1 banana, sliced
- 1 tbsp almond butter
- 1 tsp maple syrup
- Pinch of salt

Method

1. Heat plant milk in a small pan until warm.
2. Add oats and salt, cook over medium heat for 5 minutes, stirring.
3. Stir in chia seeds.
4. Pour into a bowl and top with banana slices.
5. Add almond butter and drizzle with maple syrup.

R2-D2's tip

This is a recipe for when you need clarity. Eat it slowly, in silence if possible.

17. Crait Crystal Salt Fish

Planet of origin: Crait | Omnivore | Medium | 35 min | 2 servings | 290 kcal

The planet Crait is covered in a thick layer of white salt crystal. The Resistance used it as a base briefly, and during that time someone discovered that the local fish preserved in this natural salt had an extraordinary flavour. R2-D2 documented this accidental discovery during one of the longest nights of the Resistance's history.

Nutritional information per serving

Protein: 38g | Carbohydrates: 2g | Fat: 14g | Calories: 290 kcal

Ingredients

- 2 sea bass fillets
- Coarse sea salt
- 2 cloves garlic
- 1 lemon
- Fresh dill
- 2 tbsp olive oil
- Capers to serve

Method

1. Pat fish dry with kitchen paper.
2. Season generously with coarse salt and leave 10 minutes.
3. Rinse salt off and pat dry again.
4. Heat olive oil in a pan over medium-high heat.
5. Cook fish skin side down for 4 minutes until skin is crispy.
6. Flip and cook 2 more minutes.
7. Serve with lemon juice, dill and capers.

R2-D2's tip

Do not move the fish while the skin is cooking. Patience gives you a perfect crispy skin.

18. Exegol Dark Side Chocolate Tart

Planet of origin: Exegol | Vegetarian | Hard | 90 min | 8 servings | 480 kcal

Exegol is a planet of eternal darkness, hidden in the Unknown Regions. R2-D2 never went there personally, and prefers to keep it that way. But when Rey returned, she described the darkness and the cold with great detail. R2-D2 created this recipe in response. Sometimes the darkest ingredients make the most extraordinary things.

Nutritional information per serving

Protein: 7g | Carbohydrates: 42g | Fat: 32g | Calories: 480 kcal

Ingredients

- 200 g dark chocolate (85% cocoa)
- 200 ml double cream
- 3 eggs
- 50 g sugar
- 180 g plain flour
- 90 g cold butter, cubed
- 2 tbsp cocoa powder
- Pinch of salt
- Sea salt flakes to finish

Method

1. Make pastry: rub butter into flour, cocoa and salt until breadcrumb texture.
2. Add 2-3 tbsp cold water, mix until dough comes together.
3. Chill 30 minutes. Roll out and line a 23cm tart tin.
4. Blind bake at 180 degrees for 15 minutes.
5. Melt chocolate with cream over a bain-marie until smooth.
6. Whisk eggs and sugar until pale, fold into chocolate mixture.
7. Pour into tart case and bake 15 minutes until just set.
8. Cool completely. Finish with sea salt flakes.

R2-D2's tip

The tart should still have a slight wobble in the centre when you take it out. It will firm as it cools.

19. Mos Eisley Cantina Nachos

Planet of origin: Tatooine | Vegetarian | Easy | 20 min | 4 servings | 520 kcal

The Mos Eisley Cantina is the most famous drinking establishment in the galaxy. It does not serve droids, but it does serve nachos. R2-D2 waited outside while Obi-Wan and Luke negotiated passage with Han Solo. A kitchen worker took pity on him and passed a plate of nachos through the door. R2-D2 has loved them ever since, even though he cannot technically eat.

Nutritional information per serving

Protein: 18g | Carbohydrates: 55g | Fat: 28g | Calories: 520 kcal

Ingredients

- 200 g tortilla chips
- 200 g cheddar cheese, grated
- 1 can black beans, drained
- 1 red pepper, diced
- 1 jalapeno, sliced
- 200 g sour cream
- 1 avocado, mashed
- Juice of 1 lime
- Fresh coriander
- Salt

Method

1. Preheat oven to 200 degrees.
2. Spread chips on a large baking tray.
3. Scatter beans and red pepper over chips.
4. Cover generously with cheese.
5. Bake 10-12 minutes until cheese is melted and bubbling.
6. Mix avocado with lime juice and salt.
7. Top nachos with sour cream, guacamole, jalapenos and coriander.
8. Serve immediately.

R2-D2's tip

Layer the cheese under and over the toppings so they stick. Nobody wants a nacho without cheese.

20. Scarif Sunset Smoothie Bowl

Planet of origin: Scarif | Vegan | Easy | 10 min | 1 servings | 290 kcal

Before the Empire turned it into a data vault, Scarif was one of the most beautiful planets in the galaxy. White sand beaches, clear water, and extraordinary tropical fruit. Jyn Erso and the Rogue One team never got to enjoy the sunsets. R2-D2 keeps this recipe as a small memorial to their sacrifice and to a paradise that the galaxy lost.

Nutritional information per serving

Protein: 6g | Carbohydrates: 58g | Fat: 6g | Calories: 290 kcal

Ingredients

- 1 frozen banana
- 100 g frozen mango chunks
- 100 g frozen strawberries
- 100 ml coconut milk
- Toppings: fresh fruit, granola, coconut flakes, chia seeds

Method

1. Blend frozen banana, mango and strawberries with coconut milk.
2. Blend until completely smooth and thick.
3. Pour into a bowl.
4. Arrange toppings in rows across the top.
5. Serve immediately before it melts.

R2-D2's tip

The mixture must be very thick, like soft-serve ice cream. Add coconut milk gradually and only as much as needed.
